Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

We note with some amusement the inconistencies of others. Our own inconsistencies are never amusing. Some other editor, hoist by his own petard or trapped in his own logic always interests, not only fellow scribes, but many readers. For instance, C. K.'s rabid denunciation of the United States Supreme Court because of its AAA thumbs down, and his measured praise for its TVA stand. Yet the Supreme Court system has been unchanged since the days of John Marshall. Like the sun it shines on the just and the unjust.

There are certain aspects of the TVA decision which C. K. conveniently overlooks. If under one pretext or another the Federal Government can go into the electric power business, under one pretext or another it may go into other business. Why not the newspaper business.

We do not believe that the founders intended that building dams for improving the navigibility of streams or preventing floods should sanction Federal dealing in electicity. For we can be sure that the founders had not the slightest inkling that production of electricity would ever grow from any kind of dam building. But times and science works changes, and if any evidence were needed that the Supreme Court changes, the TVA decision bears witness.

For the court might have ruled that while the Federal government may produce electricity, it may not engage in wholesaling or retailing current in competition with private wholesalers and retailers, and that it must dispose of its current generated to the highest private bidders. Instead it assumed that the Federal government may produce electricity as a side line result of building dams for improving stream navigability or preventing floods, and since the electricity is produced the government, may, to all practical purposes, dispose of it as a private utility would dispose of it. In other words the Federal government enters into activity, which hitherto has been the province of private investors only, not through the front door, but through the back door.

It is interesting to observe that the court seems to assume that the dams were built for the chief purpose of improving streams navigability etc. and not, as they were in fact chiefly for producing electricilt. This is where the real departure from precedent occurs. And it is this assumption that should be reassurring to all other private businesses. There must be a point of departure, a peg to hang a favorable decision upon. As a newspaper publisher, therefore, we can scan the Constitution and find no such peg, relating to the publishing business, upon which some time or other the United States Supreme Court might hang a decision which would put the government into the business of publishing newspapers in competition with C. K. and the rest of us. If anyone with a keener glim should find such a peg in the Constitution, please do not tell us about it. We prefer to sleep well o' nights.

Here is a sample of specious, or Brisbane, reasoning:

Did you ever stop to think that hard times mean nothing to a hen? She just keeps on digging woms and laying eggs, regardless of what is said about conditions. If the ground is hard, she scratches the harder. If it's dry, she digs deeper. If she strikes a rock, she works around it. But always she digs up worms and turns them into hard-shelled profits. Did you ever know of a hen starving to death waiting for worms to dig themselves to the surface? Did you ever hear one cackle because times were hard? Not on your life. She saves her breath for digging and her cackles for eggs.

Specious reasoning. There are a lot of things the dumb brutes do which we cannot or will not do and to cite as an example for human conduct that of a hen, an ant or a bee, is one of the dumbest things human kind does.

Mr. J. J. Dent, who is employed on the South Yuba Canal at Excelsior Point, 24 miles northeast of Nevada City, spent Sunday evening with his family in Nevada City. There was nine inches of new snow at camp when he left and it was snowing hard in this city when he departed early this morning.

TRAINED CAT AND FROG IN ONE-ACT DRAMA

(By EDNA MARTINE)

He is a big black, bob tailed, cat with white paws and a star in his face, named Snookums. He performs all sorts of tricks for his mistress, Mrs. Clara Scarfe of Boulder street. The latest being hide-and-go-seek. Snookums plays much like a dog and seems to know almost everything that is said. Mrs. Scarfe noticed the cat with something odd in his mouth one day last week, while she was upstairs, and upon investigation, she found he had her pet green frog from the hot house. He brought it to her and was rubbing it gently with his head. Mrs. Scarfe was shocked to see her pet at her feet all drawn up as if in misery and carried it back to the flowers in the hothouse. In a few minutes after the frog had gained his breath he started croaking saucily as if to say: "Your old black nigger witch took me up there."

The writer has often seen him perform, shaking hands, rolling over, sitting up, and taking food in his paw as he sits up eating it and glancing about as he nibbles away. If he does not like his dinner he rolls it up in the rug he uses for a table cloth. He meets everyone in a friendly manner as they pass the house.

ENGLEBRIGHT REPORTED FOR TOWNSEND PLAN

Nevada City Nugget,
Nevada City, Calif.,

Dear Editor:

Some people in this the Second Congressional District do not seem to know that Congressman Harry L. Englebright is for the Townsend Plan.

The Townsendies of this district appreciate his efforts to put the old age Revolving Pension Plan into a law for the people of the U. S. A. We are behind our congressman and will vote for him. He has always worked for the people of this district.

Dr. Townsend has found the "wave length" that will reach the people and touch their hearts; that will make them dauntless followers till they reach the goal.

MR. AND MRS. W. H. ROBINSON,
North San Juan.

SNOW PILES UP; RIVERS FALLING

Snow started falling in Nevada City at an early hour this morning and the storm has continued all day. The city's surrounding area is covered by two inchse of snow.

The state highway headquarters at Nevada City at noon reported a foot of new snow at Steep Hollow making a total of three feet. All three snow plows and equipment with crews are keeping the Tahoe-Ukiah highway open through Bear Valley and on to the junction above Emigrant Gap.

Mr. E. J. Haverstock, Washington mail carrier, reported six inches of new snow at the junction of the Washington road and the Tahoe-Ukiah. Two inches of new snow lay on the ground at Gold Run on the Auburn route at noon.

Four inches of new snow was reported at Downieville at noon and the road was open as far as Camp Pioneer six miles above Sierra City.

From Mr. Garrison, district manager's office, it was learned all rivers in the Marysville area in his district, had dropped four feet since Saturday evening.

Twelve inches of new snow was reported at Alleghany at noon today.

FLOWERS BLOOMING

In a visit to Goedetia, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Goede, on Robinson Heights southeast of Nevada City, were noted signs of early springtime. There were the lovely blue stylosa winter iris and golden yellow crocus with two colors of red berries on sturdy cokoneaster shrub, all making a cheery sight at the entrance to their charming home.

Mr. George Hallock, superintendent of the Sixteen-to-One Extension mine at Alleghany is in Nevada City today.

ANNIE BYRNES FILES SUIT FOR $29,000 DAMAGES

Miss Annie Rush Byrnes filed suit in the Superior Court yesterday against J. R. Tyrrell, Bret Harte Inn, the Mountain Oil company and various Richard Roes and John Does for damages for alleged injuries received when she slipped on oil left on the sidewalk adjacent to the Bret Harte Inn.

Miss Byrnes asks general damages of $25,000, specific damages of $1,000 for physicians care and medical treatment, $720 for time lost as a result of the accident, and $3,000 in anticipation of more or less permanent disability.

The plaintiff alleges that the accident occurred February 27, and that her injuries included cranial suffering, headaches since the accident, partial paralysis of her right side and injury to the lower back. Her attorneys are Faulkner, Doyle and Sanford of San Francisco.

DR. HAWKINS ENTERS CITY COUNCIL RACE

Dr. Walter Hawkins today filed his nomination declaration for city councilman with the city clerk. The last day for filing nomination papers is March 25. Others expected to file their nomination papers are Robert Nye and James Penrose, incumbents, and Charles Leiter. Three places on the board are to be filled in the elestion which takes April 14. They are the seats occupied by Mayor Ray Murchie, who declares he will not be a candidate for re-election, and James Penrose named to succeed Wade Armstrong, resigned, and Robert Nye, appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of late Mayor Seamon.

COUNTY LIMITS TRUCK WEIGHTS

UKIAH, Feb. 24.—Acting to save county roads and highways from destruction, the Mendocino County Board of Supervisors passed an ordinance limiting the loads of heavy trucks to 18,000 pounds.

The action was the second taken by the supervisors, a previous ordinance providing a load limit for trucks having been found uneffective for lack of "teeth." The ordinance just passed makes it a misdemeanor to haul over any county roadway a load in excess of 18,000 pounds and provides a penalty of $500 fine of six months jail term.

Trucks hauling heavy loads over county roads caused the paving to break up, forcing the county to an unreasonable expense to maintain them, the supervisors held in passing the ordinance.

CIVIC CLUB TO HEAR ABOUT LIQUOR LAWS

Of great interest to members and invited guests of the Woman's Civic Club will be the meeting tonight at the Brand Studio.

District Attorney Vernon Stoll will talk to the members on laws governing sale of liquor and admission of minors to places of selling liquor.

Following Mr. Stoll's talk a short business meeting will be held and also a radio broadcast burlesque.

AGED WOMAN SUCCUMBS EARLY THIS MORNING

Mrs. Ellen Sproul, aged 78 years, revered and long time resident of Grass Valley ,passed away at an early hour this morning. She leaves to mourn her passing two sons, Charles and William Sproul of Grass Valley and several grandsons; a sister in Maine; and a number of nieces and nephews living in different parts of the United States.

Holmes-Hooper Funeral Home has charge of the funeral services which are to be Wednesday morning at 10 a. m. in St. Patrick's Catholic church with Fr. O'Meara officiating. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

FARMER PLOWS WALLET UNDER· PLOWS IT UP AGAIN· NO INCREASE

Farmer J. R. Brown, who lost a wallet containing $130 in bills while he was plowing his fifty-acre bean field thirteen miles south of Marysville in Yuba county, Calif., last July, has just plowed his wallet back to sunshine with the bundle of money almost cut in two by the plow disc. Though not accumulating any interest, during its deposit under furrows, Farmer Brown says that he can't complain about his bills being cut in half, because the value of the dollar already has suffered the same fate.

Last July, Brown secured a $200 loan from the Marysville Production Credit Association. Cashing his check, he settled $70 worth of bills and put the remaining $130 in his pants pocket. After an afternoon spent behind the plow, Brown noticed that his wallet was gone. He could do nothing but mourn his loss and plant his bean seed. Today Robert Miner of the Farm Credit Administration's Production Credit Corporation here, and the man who made the original loan to Brown, received a letter from W. Ray Chandler, of Yuba City, Calif., inspector for the Marysville association, which said:

"J. R. Brown just plowed up his purse containing $130 in five dollar bills. His disc had cut part way through the bunch, but he will be able to get new ones."

PLEADS GUILTY; ASKS PROBATION

Clifford Cundy, former assistant manager of the Bret Harte Inn in Grass Valley, pleaded guilty to grand theft in the superior court here on Friday and asked for probation.

The grand theft charge was sworn to by James Tyrrell, manager of the inn, after Cundy disappeared and a $600 shortage in hotel funds was discovered.

Cundy later was apprehended in San Francisco and was brought to this county to stand trial. The hearing on his probation application was set for March 7th.

COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP HOOP BATTLE IMPENDING

Even though not a League game, the hoop contest scheduled for Wednesday night between the Nevada City and Grass Valley high A and B quintets is, no doubt the most important game of the season both to players and spectators. The victors will reign as county champions, and the game will be a fight from whistle to gun. The Grass Valley gym will be the scene of the battle, and it is doubtful whether or not enough seats will be available for those desiring to attend.

In the first meeting of the two teams, the Yellowjackets defeated Miners in the A division. The locals played a good class of ball and heard the gun go off on a 28-27 victory in their favor. The score was too close for comfort, however, and the Miners came back a few weeks later for revenge. They got it—in the form of a 25-23 victory. But scores such as these decide little as to ability; so a third and deciding game was scheduled.

Whether or not Stevens and Organ will manage to get into the game is indefinite. Flu has kept them off the court recently, and their return may be in the Wednesday affair. The A starters will be chosen from the following list: Elliott, Wilde, Lopez, Steger, Santinelli, Stevens.

The B's enter the game with the shadow of two losses from the Red and Gold B quint, 38-22 at the first meeting, and 27-22 in the last game. If their improvement keeps along the line of advance, surprising results may occur in this division Wednesday. The starting line up will probably include Bennett, Schiffner, Brown, Mullis and Organ. In the event that Organ is unable to play, Gates will probably see starting action.

Miss Helen Jones of Hollister spent the week end with her parents, Judge and Mrs. George L. Jones.

COUNTY SHARE AUTO RECEIPTS TOTAL $7,950

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—Motorists of California contributed $2,917,918.31 in 1935 to develop county roads and a like amount to build and maintain their state higthways, Gov-Frank F. Merriam today reported in announcing checks are being mailed county treasurers for final apportionment due as a result of last year's vehicle registrations.

The 65 per cent of vehicle registration levies allotted equally in 1935 to state and county highway development, or $5,835,836.62, exceeds by $391,538.38 the amount apportioned in 1934 when 2,080,884 vehicles were registered in comparison with the record of 2,254,823 registrations in the last year.

County treasuries received $2,782,793.17 in the August settlement and the remaining $135,125.14 of the 1935 apportionment from motor vehicle funds now is being paid. The state highway system receives similar amounts, explains Ray Ingels, director of motor vehicles.

Nevada county, with a total of 6144 motor vehicles registered in 1935, received $7,950.80 for local road building and maintenance.

The value of each Nevada county vehicle registered in terms of road development here amounts to $1.29.

TWO NOTED MEN ON U. C. FACULTY ARE SUMMONED

BERKELEY, Feb. 24.—Two distinguished educators of the University of California, both the sons of clergymen and both descended from noteworthy Colonial forbears, died within an hour of each other on the night of Monday, February 17, one as the result of an accident and the other from the infirmities of age.

Dr. Cornelius Beach Bradley, 93, oldest emeritus professor and for fifty years or more an outstanding figure in the state's educational life, and Dr. Robert Palfrey Utter, professor of English and a direct descendant of General William Palfrey paymaster general of Washington's army and ambassador to France, were the two scholars summoned, the first at his home at about midnight and the second at the Cowell Memorial Hospital on the campus, 11:15 p. m. Dr. Utter had been fatally injured by a falling eucalyptus tree while on the way to his home from the Faculty Club. Dr. Bradley died after an eftended illness.

Missionary to the Siamese people for three years, educator and lover of the great outdoors, Dr. Bradley had a particularly varied career. He was one of the founders of the Sierra Club and as such wrote voluminously on outdoor subjects. He was born in Bangkok, Siam, in 1843, graduated from Oberlin College, in Ohio, in 1868 and the Yale Divinity School in 1871 after which he returned to Siam as a missionary. While there he married Mary S. Comings of Greensboro, Vt. Both Dr. and Mrs. Bradley claimed descent from early Colonial residents.

Dr. Utter was born in Olympia, Washington, in 1875, and was a graduate of Harvard University with the class of 1898. He came to the University of California in 1920 as associate professor of English after serving as associate professor of English at Amherst College.

Apart from his educational activities Dr. Utter wrote for a number of popular publications, among them The Nation and Harper's.

Four of the five ex-district attorneys of Nevada County, who are now living, were present at Friday's session of the superior court. Former District Attorneys present were: Judge George L. Jones, Fred L. Arbogast, now of Oakland, E. H. Armstrong of Grass Valley and W. E. Wright of Nevada City. Nevada county's present district attorney, Vernon Stoll was also present.

Miss Elaine Mobley of Auburn visited her father, Judge W. L. Mobley for the Washington Birthday holiday.

GOVERNOR PUTS A. M. HOLMES ON STATE BOARD

A. M. (Andy) Holmes, former mayor of Nevada City and former coroner of Nevada County, has been signally honored by Governor Merriam by appointment to the state boad of funeral directors and embalmers. This is the first time Nevada County has been recognized by the appointment of one of its citizens to state office, since the late C. E. Clinch was named on the state prison board a great many years ago.

Holmes succeeds W. B. O'Bierne of Jamestown as a member of the board. The duties of the board are similar to those of the medical, dental and other state bodies which maintain professional standards in the several professions. The board examines candidates for embalmer's licenses, issues the licenses, examines firms and individuals who seek funeral director's licenses and issues licenses to successful applicants. The board considers complaints against mortuary firms and individuals involving criminal acts, or moral turpitude, unprofessional conduct, such as fraud in the conduct of their business, false or misleading advertising, solicitation of human dead bodies, the employment of "cappers" or "steerers," aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice funeral directing or embalming, accepting "honoriums from mausoleum or crematory owners for turning over to them bodies for disposition, and a large number of other unethical or fraudulent practices which are strictly prohibited. The board has the power and duty to suspend or fine licensees for infractions of the law.

Holmes is the head of the Holmes Funeral Home in Nevada City and the Holmes-Hooper Funeral Home in Grass Valley, and for 23 years has been a funeral director in Nevada County. Te is past president of the Coroners Association of California, past president of the Northern California Funeral Directors, member of the California Funeral Directors association, and was among the very first funeral directors in the state to receive an embalmer's license.

Members of the board as now constituted come from the following cities: Los Angeles, Long Beach, San Francisco, San. Rafael and Nevada City.

MR. ERNEST COLE PASSES ON IN SACRAMENTO

Mr. Ernest Cole, prominent mining man and Nevada City resident for the last seven years, passed away in Sacramento Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. Packwood. The news of his passing brought sorrow to his many friends in this section. Mr. Cole was 60 years of age last December. Mr. Cole has been in the employ of the Newmont Mining company many years and at time of his death was superintendent of the Pennsylvania mine at Browns Valley. He was made foreman of the Murchie mine east of Nevada City when the company purchased the property 7 years ago. Mr. Cole has mined all over the world, having spent some time in Africa, Canada and in the United States. He was in Arizona and Nevada, coming to Nevada City from Tonopah.

He leaves to mourn his passing a loving wife, daughter, Mrs. Raymond Packwood and two children, of Sacramento, a son William Cole and two children of England. His son served in a submarine during the world war and is now in the English postal service.

Mr. Ernest Cole became a member of the Odd Fellow lodge in the east years ago. Tre remains were brought to Nevada City by Holmes Funeral Home this afternoon. No funeral arrangements have been made at the time of going to press.

Oscar Odegaard of the Nevada County Lumber Company who has been confined to his home by an attack of flu, is getting along nicely and will soon return to his duties at the company office.

It may go in Russia, in Germany and in Italy, but in Amreica nobody is going to tell the newspapers what they can or cannot print.

The Supreme Court saw to that in its decision last week when it threw out the late Huey Long's gross receipts tax on newspapers, which was a big stick designed to make the press toe the line in Louisiana.

"A free press stands as one of the great interpreters between the government and the people. To allow it to be fettered, is to fetter ourselves."

So said the Court.

When it applies to anything so sacred as freedom of the press, this use of the tax power to wreck some service being done for the public is slapped down in a hurry.

GOOD SERVICE COSTS NO MORE

A modern establishment—a trained, intelligent and courteous personnel — distinctive motor equipment and other evidences of progress and prosperity are NOT an indication that funeral service charges will be high. A successful concern can be built only by serving honestly and well, at prices that are fair and reasonable.

SCOUTS TO GIVE CRAFT SHOW AT ROSEVILLE SOON

The big scout show of the year of the Tahoe Area Council will be held at the Roseville union high school on Saturday night, February 29 in the form of its 10th annual rally.

Council scouters are making preparations for the best rally yet. J. Wilson, district commissioner, is supervising the installation of sufficient tables for exhibits of scout handicrafts. R. E. Arp has selected a committee to judge these exhibits, which this year will be of great variety and a more technical nature than in the past and will include electro plating, photography and radio. Commissioner W. H. Seaver has charge of the opening ceremonies. J. W. Hanson of the Roseville Court of Honor committee will operate the loud speaker announcing system giving the results of contests and demonstrations as furnished by R. F. Brill scorer of the rally for the past nine years. District Commissioner Jeff Mooers will be in charge of the judges consisting of Tahoe Councils, Eagle Scouts and Council officers.

G. W. Brundage, Jamboree committee chairman, will present Eagle badges. A series of one half minute tableaux will be presented on the stage as part of the campfire program. These tableaux will represent various phases of scouting and are to be presented by each troop with scouts in uniform or costumes.

Due to change in seating arrangement it is hoped to increase the size of the crowd so it will not be necessary to have people turned away because of lack of seats.

YELLOWJACKETS LOSE BATTLE TO COLLEGE LADS

Coach Barron's Yellowjackets A team returned Sunday from their trip to Stockton, defeated, but happy. As was naturally expected, the Tiger freshmen of the College of the Pacific were too much for the locals, and a score of 40-9 was chalked up in favor of the boys in Orange and Black T.he boys enjoyed the trip however, despite the weather and the score.

The contests scheduled for last Friday evening between the Nevada City and the Lincoln quintets was postponed due to weather conditions. The game will be played on a date yet to be announced, as soon as final arrangements are made.

PIONEER BORNE TO REST IN OLD FAMILY PLOT

CAMPTONVILLE, Feb. 24. — Among the pines, in the country he loved so well, the remains of the late Edwin L. Cross were laid to rest Saturday afternoon at the family cemetery on the Baden Ranch, with a large group of friends in attendance despite the stormy weather. In this little private cemetery, secluded in the dense forest land, rest the graves of three other members of his family, his wife, sister-in-law and son. Rev. H. H. Buckner, pastor of the Methodist church at Nevada City conducted the services.

As the grave closed, there closed the last page of the history of one of California's outstanding pioneer citizens a history of vivid early California life, experiences and adventures, a life that lived when the state was really the west, and men lived among men.

E. L. Cross was born August 1, 1847, in Centerville, St. Joseph County, Michigan, he was one of twins, the other dying the year after their birth. He came to the west when a young man, and like many of the pioneers was attracted to this section by the lure of gold in the gold rush days.

He married at his home town before coming west; his wife coming from New York, and spent her life by his side until 1927, when she passed away. One son was born to the union, Mark, in 1876, who froze to death in 1930.

Deceased was one of the outstanding pioneers of this section, he was engaged in the mercantile business in North San Juan during the early days. Later on he moved to the Baden Ranch five miles south of this place on the old Nevada City road where he spent most of his life.

Deceased is survived by a granddaughters, Mrs. Mandus R. Carlson and two great-grandchildren, Mandus, Jr., and Benny Carlson.

The body was taken charge of by the Holmes Funeral Home at Nevada City.

PLACER MINING MEN TAKE STEPS TO USE U. S. DAMS

Following an organization meeting Saturday in the Bret Harte Inn of approximately fifty mining men interested in taking steps necessary to signing up gravel yardage as a guarantee to the war department that the proposed deberis dams will be paid for if constructed, arrangements were made for another meeting next Saturday at the same time and place.

The following committee was appointed to interest and bring into the conference owners of placer ground which will be available for hydraulic mining when the dams are constructed: Harvey Davidson of the Middle Fork of the American, C. B. Deitler of the Blue Canyon, North Fork of the American, A. H. Turner of Colfax for Bear River, C. E. Clark of North Bloomfield for the Yuba river, J. P. Hall of Auburn, member at large.

Hall was chosen temporary chairman, and W. D. Esterly of Grass Valley, secretary. Among those attending the meeting who participated in the discussion were W. H. Harvey, who is interested on the North Fork of the American, George W. Hallett of the Alleghany section, William Moulton of French Corral, F. C. Homer of North San Juan, Harvey Davidson of the North Fork of the Middle Yuba river and W. W. Waggoner and other representatives of the Grass Valley and Nevada City section.

The capacities for debris storage, estimated cost and resulting charge per cubic yard for degris storage has been given as follows:

The Narrows—118,000,000 cubic yards; $4,575,000, $3.89 per cubic yard.

Dog Bar—26,000,000 cubic yards, $1,220,000, $4.69 per cubic yard.

North Fork — 26,000,000 cubic yards, $900,000, $3.46 per cubic yards.

Ruck-a-Chucky—24,000,000 cubic yards, $750,000, $3.13 per cubic yard.

Mr. Joseph Day of Gold Flat returned Saturday evening from a trip to Sacramento and San Francisco. As local representative he attended a meeting of agents of the Northwestern Mutual Fire Association.
